

Financial solutions for your fiscal health:

Banking for Community Associations

Dedicated bankers who understand association finances

At Webster, we know how difficult it is to keep your homeowners association financially sound. Managing long-term projects and capital improvements are critical to the value of your property and your fiscal health.

That's why we have business bankers dedicated exclusively to serving associations like yours. They'll work with you and your property management firm to understand your financial challenges. And help you find the specialized services you need, including:

- The right operating and reserve accounts, including business checking, savings, certificates of deposit and money markets
- Fully integrated payment solutions for your community and property management firm
- Special financing options for associations, including project-specific term loans and lines of credit*
- Personal banking services for you and your community members
- Flexible to meet with you or your board at any time

At Webster we are committed to helping your nonprofit thrive so that you can continue to help others. After all, that's what matters most.
